On 9 and 11 January 1954, the Panzer Kaserne, Borna, was occupied by an estimated 1,200 to 1,500 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank insignia. On 11 January, several tanks, presumably T-34/85 tanks were seen driving in the barracks yard. Intensive traffic was observed from and to the repair shops, and motor vehicle and tank sheds. The southwest gate, which previously served as entrance for vehicles and tanks was closed and blocked by iron bars.
